

Lamondance Presents "A Winter's Twist": A Spectacular Showcase of Community Dancers in a High-Quality Production

North Vancouver, BC - Lamondance (LMD), a renowned professional contemporary dance training program and company, is thrilled to announce the highly-anticipated return of their winter show, "A Winter's Twist." This enchanting production, inspired by the classic romance Romeo and Juliet, offers local dancers from our community a unique opportunity to participate in a captivating and unforgettable performance.

Under the visionary direction of artistic director Davi Rodrigues, a seasoned dancer and artistic director with over 30 years of collective experience, Lamondance has gained recognition for their exceptional skills and artistic prowess. The company has proudly represented Canada on esteemed international stages, including the TanzArt Festival in Germany and the Vancouver International Dance Festival, where they received widespread acclaim.

"A Winter's Twist" will transport audiences into a whimsical winter wonderland, where they will follow the extraordinary journey of star-crossed lovers through a mystical portal. Set amidst a magical forest, the production promises an immersive experience filled with captivating choreography, stunning visuals, and an emotive narrative.

This family-friendly show will be performed exclusively at the prestigious Centennial Theatre in North Vancouver, with two spellbinding performances taking place on December 12th and 13th. Lamondance invites the local community to join them in celebrating the talents of our community's dancers in this high-quality production.

Lamondance continues to foster dance education and creative opportunities for aspiring dancers, both within and beyond the lower mainland. As a registered charity, they remain dedicated to offering professional-level training and nurturing the artistic growth of individuals passionate about dance.

Don't miss the chance to be swept away by the magic of "A Winter's Twist" this holiday season! Secure your tickets early and experience the artistry and beauty crafted by Lamondance and our talented community dancers.
